Knowledgeable integrating into the carrier pigeons team and explaining the dev lifecycle at Kuebix. Wouldn't have been able to get all my first PRs merged without your help, thanks!

Hey Alex, I sincerely appreciate your efforts on the ticket enhancements I have put in recently. You're ability to review a ticket and execute on it perfectly without much guidance (if any at all) is quite impressive. The product is always morphing into a better version of itself thanks to you.

Thank you for putting the customer first and devoting time over your weekend to troubleshoot and resolve a critical problem impacting our customer MDI during their busiest time of year. MDI experienced an unexpected issue after their Production update Thursday night, and the team worked Friday and through the weekend to first help the customer work around the issue to get shipments out on Friday, and then troubleshoot, code, test and deploy the fix over the weekend so that the customer wouldn't experience the issue again on Monday, one of their busiest shipping days of the week. Inspirational teamwork!!
